Announcements:

- The Rotary One Summit is this Saturday; anyone who wants to learn more about Rotary should attend. Robin is going and anyone who wants to ride along with her, let her know and you can carpool!
 - It is in Saginaw from 9-12.
- The 10th Annual Gala is November 18th, tickets are $45 per person or we can get a table at a discounted rate. Please let Eileen know if you are interested in attending.
- Paul and Israr went fishing this past weekend and caught 56 blue gills between the two of them
- Amy Ervin and Betsy were commended on doing a great job with the Open House for Israr and their family.
- Paul said that the Polio Plus gift cards are a big hit already; he just sold over 300 to a Rotarian in Saginaw which has already covered all of our costs of the ordered cards!

- Paul also reminded us that we will have the Holiday boxes again this year for $35/each and the goal is to sell 300 this year!
- Israr thanked everyone for their support and the warm welcome he and his family have received.
- Eileen is in need of twin beds for Israr and his family
- Krystal gave an update on the Interact clubs first meeting at West Intermediate – they will be meeting on Friday at 7am if you know anyone who wants to join.
 - If you have any ideas on how to get them involved, let her know (any charity groups that need help, or volunteers needed for an event)
- Amy and Kurt are working together to move large items to take to Israr's house on Saturday around 1pm, if you want to help.
- Amy is working with Pisanellos to get the food together for the auction on Tuesday night, so please let her know if you will be there so she knows how much food to get.
- Bethany talked about the Rotaract meetings at Mt Pleasant High School – they had 18 kids show up!
 - She is also open to any ideas for the students to get involved!
- Tom gave an update on the radio auction. Big thank you to Kathy Beebe who has been working night and day to get the auction ready!
 - Auction will be starting at 5pm, broadcasting live from 104.3
 - We had a 4 page insert in the morning sun
 - 353 items up for bid

Music: "When the Saints Go Marching In" by John Jensen

Sergeant-at-Arms: Peggy Pickler

Fines:

- Anyone who did not play a role in the radio auction was asked to donate a dollar.
- John was fined for not knowing what to sing

Brags:

- Amanda has tickets to the Women's Initiative on Nov. 2nd.
- Rich was acting on behalf of his wife; he has tickets to the chili cook off for the Lion Club on Nov. 5th. Tickets are $7/each.
- Ken's granddaughter, Tia was struggling in Calculus, she ended up with a 96% on her midterm!
- Art Reach is hosting family pumpkin carving coming up and "let's do lunch" Nov. 2nd.
- Chris Hammond from MMCC was pleased to see you welcome new Rotarian Danielle Peterson.
- Don't forget about the fireside chat on Nov. 3rd!
